Dear Friend:

I am really ashamed of myself for not writing you sooner, and the only excuse I have to offer is I have just been so busy, and trying to do too many things. I am sure by this time you have returned from the series, and I hope you enjoyed yourself. It is really ridiculous for me to be working without a secy. I should have been through with the baseball business for the year, instead I agreed to help the boys arrange this series with the Major league all stars, and it has been quite a big job. A lot of unnecessary headaches due to our poor league setup, and no cooperation. I am telling you all this so you will understand my neglect in writing you.

I hope I will be able to talk to you soon, and find out what you and Mr Zellar talked about in regards to our baseball. I would not be surprised if he was not sick of us. There has always been a lot of wrangling where Detroit is concerned.

Please accept my sincere thanks for all you have done to help us.

Very Truly Yours
